February Call Is Increased to 42

Supplemental Call of 15 For January Not Filled Because of Short Notice

Randall county has been called upon to send 42 men to Lubbock on Feb. 17, instead of 29. The supplemental call was received Thursday, and the Local Board of Selective Service ordered additional men to fill this call.

The board also received a supplemental call of 15 men to be sent to Lubbock on Monday of this week. However, due to the fact that the men would have had only three days notice the board advised State Headquarters that it would be impossible to fill this call. The February call may still be increased by 15 as a result of this situation.

The local board is making a desperate effort to fill its calls. Every single boy who has been deferred for vocational reasons has been called up for further investigation. A number of these boys will be sent to the induction station Feb. 17. Appeals have been taken on four men, who assert that they are essential and should remain at home.

Under new regulations, appeals cannot be made until after the men are sent to the induction station for physical examinations. In this manner the complete record of the men will go to the appeal board, including the physical examination.

The war department announced last week that every physically fit man of military age, who has not been deferred because of his essential position, would be called to the armed forces during 1944. If the rate of calls continue as large as present in Randall county, there will be no available men after July 1. However, members of the local board point to the fact that Moore county, with a population slightly larger than Randall county, has a call for 150 men in January, and Garza county, with an equal population had a call for 87 men this month. Randall county may get a March call that will practically wipe out all available men in the county.

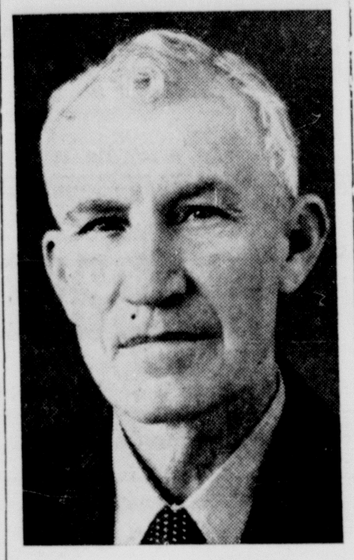
A. H. Hunt Seeks Re-election Judge



JUDGE A. H. HUNT

A. H. Hunt has authorized The News to announce his candidace for re-election to the office of County Judge, subject to the Democratic Primary in July.

"In this my formal announcement for re-election to the office of County Judge allow me first to thank you for favors and past support, also to acknowledge my sincere appreciation to fellow officials and others for courtesies and co-operation extended me since entering upon the dutles of the office. Your considerate acts and attitude have been an encouragement and a challenge to do my dead level best to deliver the goods. This I've tried to do and to pass the boost on to those I contact by being at my post when business brought you here, meeting you on a basis of practical fairness from every angle of your problem.

"I have enjoyed the work and hope you have had no occasion to regret helping to place me here. And should you decide my attention to the office justifies allowing me to succeed myself, I shall be grateful for your endorsement.

"I believe you know me well enough that I need not elaborate on my fitness and qualifications in asking for re-election. But I assure you of loyal, conscientious service if returned.

"Under present conditions duties have increased in most of the offices. This one is no exception; and with additional work and an A book for fuel to travel, I hesitate to say I'll visit the various communities to see you personally because it might be practically impossible to do so. I am asking you to consider this as a personal solicitation for your vote and influence if you think my experience and record merit your support. I pledge faithful attention and constant vigilance, which is the price of a good administration."

Boundary Lines Talk on Friday

Commissioner Giles Will Be Here From Austin to Meet 150 Land Owners Affected

Bascom Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, will be in Canyon Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. He will meet land owners from the south part of Randall, north parts of Swisher and Castro counties whose boundaries are not correct and have been under dispute for several years.

G. G. Foster, County Surveyor of Randall county, has invited 150 land owners, who are affected by these boundaries, to be at the court house to meet Mr. Giles.

The State is seeking to recover the excess land in these sections. It is reported that some of the sections have as much as 900 acres, due ot the uncertain boundaries which were set up by early surveys.

Due to the fact that most of the land in dispute is fenced, and it would be very difficult for the owners to move their fences, Mr. Foster will propose that surveys be made of the sections and that the owners be given the right to buy the excess land from the state.

The meeting will be held in the district court room, and a very large crowd is expected to attend, owing to the great interest in this question. Boundaries have been under discussion for more than 30 years and various efforts have been made to settle the boundaries.

Tickets for the tournament are 25c each person. Parties of four may reserve tables for the evening for bridge, 42, or dominoes.

Since a permanent committee is being formed for Randall County, one half of the proceeds from all undertakings in this country is to be kept here for use in fighting infantile paralysis in Randall County.

The March of Dimes jar in the wheel chair in front of the Olympic Theater, a dance at the Legion Hall Saturday night for the high school students of both schools, a dance at Cousins Hall Saturday night for the soldiers and college students, contributions from clubs, church organizations and individuals are to be the sources of funds for this worthwhile and needed cause.

Highway Plans Are Presented

Local Committee Will Go to Dimmitt to Discuss the Plans With Local Citizens

G. B. Heath presented the request of Randall county for a paved highway from Canyon to Dimmitt Saturday at the all-Panhandle meeting.

Representatives of the State Highway Commission stated that at the present time no new highways were being designated. However, several requests were made for new highways in various parts of the Panhandle. The purpose of the meeting was to bring together representatives of the different counties in order that a program may be presented next month.

Delegates from the various counties will go to Austin next month in order to present their claims to the State Highway Commission.

It is assured that much work must be done on the existing highways when the war is over. Heavy loads have done much damage to the highways of the state, and naturally this damage must be repaired before new construction is attempted.

Widening the highway from Canyon to Amarillo seems to be an assured fact as soon as the state department is able to get around to this type of work.

During next week Canyon representatives will go to Dimmitt to discuss the proposed highway with representatives from that town.

Rain Yesterday p. m. Amounts to .55 of an Inch

Following cloudy and threatening weather for two days, rain started to fall yesterday afternoon. A heavy shower fell for half an hour, bringing .55 of an inch of moisture.

This makes a total of 1.70 inches of moisture which has fallen in Canyon during January, a most unusual record.

The ground was just getting dry enough for farmers to start planting barley, but the rain of yesterday will stop farm activities.

The early wheat is doing fine, but it is unlikely that additional wheat will be planted, which will bring the county's total acreage down to only about two-thirds of the normal acreage.

Dinky Auto Tags To Be Attached, But Cost Same

Randall county has its supply of auto tags for the coming year.

Casey Candidate as Commissioner

CALVIN CASEY

Calvin Casey has authorized The News to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of County Commissioner, Precinct No. 4.

"I am now serving as County Commissioner in my second term. I have appreciated the privilege of serving the precinct and the county. I feel that my experience in office makes me much better qualified to serve you in the future than I have been able to serve in the past. Having built, with your willing cooperation, eleven miles of caliche roads in our precinct, I feel that post-war building should be centered on farm to market roads. December weather has proved that I am right in feeling that we have imperative need for fifty more miles of caliche road for school buses into Amarillo and Canyon.

"I have tried to give every citizen of my precinct and of Randall County, as a whole, a fair and square deal. County government is a mutual affair and I have earnestly tried to have worked with a view of representing each citizen to the best of my ability.

"I have devoted much of my time to the duties of the office, and if re-elected I shall continue the same policy of devoting as much of my time as necessary in order to efficiently administer the affairs of the precinct and county.

"I shall attempt to see each voter in my precinct between now and the July primary. If I should miss any of you it will be entirely unintentional. I shall greatly appreciate your support during this campaign and vote in the election," concluded Mr. Casey.

Changes Made in Farm Program

County Agent Upchurch Outlines New Regulations in Regard Program for Year

The AAA Farm Program for 1944 as announced by the Texas State office follows the same general plan as the 1943 program. There are, however, some important changes that should be understood by all farm operators.

The current program does not provide any acreage control of any crops grown in Randall county. It does not provide any crop adjustment payment or parity payment on wheat. It does provide for payments for soil and moisture conserving practices that are carried out during the year.

The rate of payment on several of these practices has been raised from last year and the specifications have been changed on several practices. One of these changes has to do with the contour furrowing of summer fallow acreage. The 1944 specifications for this practice includes furrowing on contour, furrows spaced from 12 to 48 inches in width. This allows the furrowing to be done with a lister or the popular surface cultivator type of implement. The rate of payment for this practice is higher than last yead.

Another practice for which the rate of payment is higher, is the contour seeding of any crop with grain drill.

A list of the practices approved for Randall county will be mailed soon to all farm operators of record in the county office.

The total allowance for conservation practice payments on each farm will be considerably higher for 1944 on account of the fact that allowances are figured on the basis of crop land over and above wheat allotment acreage, and since there is no wheat allotment for this year the allowance is calculated on the entire crop land acreage.

The National War Food Administration, under which the Farm is operated, has pointed out the needs for some crop adjustments that are needed to maintain the high rate of total food production set in 1942 and 1943.

It is pointed out that the present cattle population is several million head above normal, the number of hogs marketed in 1943 more than 40 million head above normal and the 1943 poultry nearly 70 million above normal.

Sufficient feed cannot be produced to care for the present rate of livestock and poultry production. The big increases were possible because of the larger supplies of grain stored under the ever-normal granary program prior to the beginning of the war. Most of this surplus grain has now been used up.

Farmers are asked to consider the need for a greatly increased feed crop acreage this year. It is not likely that wheat for livestock feeding will be available to any great extent in the year ahead.

Randall county has been assigned a quota of 94,000 acres of feed grains (barley, oats and grain sorghum). This will perhaps be exceeded on account of some wheat acreage not seeded last fall because of dry weather.

The 94,000 acres is a goal for the county total for these crops. There will be no acreage requirement for any individual farm or any reduction in conservation payments because of failure to plant any crop.

With the present moisture conditions it is expected that a record feed crop acreage will be seeded this spring.

Tax Paying Time Coming to End on January 31

All taxes which are not paid by Monday, January 31, will become delinquent on February 1.

There has been a good response to taxes this year, but collectors would like to see one year when 100% collections were reported.

Poll tax payments are being made rapidly. With election year on, every citizen is advised that he must pay his poll tax before the end of the month in order to secure a vote in the various elections of the year.

Members of the Texas legislature are trying to put the squeeze on Governor Coke Stevenson. He is being implored to call a special session in order to provide means for the soldiers to vote. The Governor takes the position, backed by a decision of the Attorney General, that soldiers cannot vote without a poll tax receipt. Since this is a constitutional provision, no special session of the legislature could consider such an amendment, and furthermore, the amendment could not be passed upon by a vote of the people in time for the soldiers to use this year. The Governor says he is going to stand by the constitution. Some of the hot heads in the legislature threaten that he will have an opponent if he does not call the special session and make provisions for the soldiers to vote without a poll tax receipt. Members of the legislature should understand that they cannot scare Governor Stevenson into calling a special session simply for the purpose of passing an illegal bill, as much as he might desire to hand the ballot to the soldiers. It begins to look that the only sensible way to handle the soldier vote is through federal supervision—in spite of our plea for state's rights.

We hear much about the rising cost of living and the big incomes of war workers and many lines of producers. While rejoicing at this so-called wartime prosperity of so many persons, just keep in mind that there are 20 million persons in America who are suffering an actual reduction in income because of the increased cost of living. Those who complain because they cannot make more money out of the war, yet enjoy a fair degree of prosperity, should consider those of the middle class who have actually had their incomes reduced because of war conditions, over which they have no control.

This is a good time for politically minded persons to run for public office. OPA has ruled that candidates may have all the gasoline they wish to make political campaigns. Naturally politics is a very essential commodity in this country, and with a presidential election coming up, every candidate must be treated right, so far as their fuel is concerned. Other essential lines of business must get along on limited amounts of gasoline, but with candidates OPA is very liberal.

All publishers of West Texas are advised that the 35th Annual Convention of the Panhandle Press Association will be held in Amarillo April 14-15. The directors met Saturday and arranged an attractive and profitable program for the convention. Publishers are advised now to begin to get ready to attend this convention.

Citizens have only a few more days in which to arm themselves with a poll tax receipt. After next Tuesday it will be too bad for those who neglected to dig up $1.75 to buy a poll tax. This year promises great things in the way of politics, and every qualified person should be ready to vote.

Acting according to predictions, the Democratic National Committee met in Washington, D. C., Saturday, pulled off a $100-per-plate dinner, and demanded that the President run for a 4th term. This was strictly a New Deal crowd, and a big time was had by all who attended. The President, through modesty, was not present, but Mrs. Roosevelt kept a watchful eye on the proceedings. The President has been trying to junk the term, "New Deal" for something more tasteful to the American people. But in the race between Vice President Wallace and Speaker Sam Rayburn, both courting the nod of the President for second place on the ticket, Wallace made no bones about it; it is still the New Deal. So far as Wallace is concerned, it will continue to be the New Deal. Naturally Rayburn paid highest praise to the President, but he neglected to tie any tag on the party. He seems willing to run for Vice President under any kind of a name. The 4th term campaign is definitely launched, and no Democrat has the slightest chance for the nomination. The New Deal dominates every phase of the Democratic party. As distasteful as it may seem to many real Democrats, the only thing left for them in November is to bolt the party, or simply not vote.

Bolting the Democratic party will not be hard for many Texans. They remember the days of bolting Al Smith and supporting Herbert Hoover. However, the Republicans will have to nominate a progressive instead of an isolationist, if they expect to win favors with the Democrats who have lost faith in the New Deal. The President has set the example for bolting. Be it remembered that he openly supported candidates who were opposing those Democrats who refused to wear the brass collar of the President and jump at his beck and call. Indications are for many loose bolts flying around in November.

Various newspaper men who have covered the conferences of Roosevelt and Churchill have openly stated that Churchill is very anxious to see the President re-elected for a 4th term. It is even suggested that Churchill would be willing to prolong the war in Europe just so Roosevelt could be re-elected. We cannot believe that two men would stoop to such a dastardly criminal act as to prolong the war longer than necessary just to assure the re-election of one of them. No one will likely know the truth of these statements, which are firmly believed by many Americans.

Advertising the opening of the so-called 2nd front in France continues. But while all this was going on, our troops slipped in behind the Huns and may be able to deal a fatal blow to many thousands of Germans in Italy. Wonder if advertising the 2nd front had anything to do with this surprise slip up on Hitler's forces? At any rate, Hitler will likely not know where this so-called 2nd front is to be opened until our military force gets ready to strike. When the strike comes, there will be no question about its success. While we will lose thousands of men, the attack will be a success.

A group of newspaper men were discussing politics the other day. Only one of the group believed that the New Deal would carry Texas this fall. One of the men had been in several states, talked with scores of informed persons, all of whom predicted that Roosevelt would be defeated, if he runs again. We are not so hopeful. We certainly would like to see the New Deal defeated, but certainly want to know who is going to run the country before we chase up a blind alley and bump into the Old Deal with all of its rotten gangsters.

The Democratic party is asking the people to contribute 3 million dollars to re-elect Roosevelt. Democrats of Randall county have always contributed from $150 to $200 to this campaign fund. Wonder how much will be raised this year? The News will forward all contributions to the State Committee, as in past years, for all who wish to make contributions.

Ensign Burgess Ends Specialized Training

Ensign Cecil Edmund Burgess, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burgess, graduated January 22, from Naval Mine Warfare School, Yorktown, Va., where he has been receiving specialized training.

Ensign Burgess entered the service with rank of ensign September 1. His first training was received at Ft. Schuyler, The Bronx, New York City. For fourteen months prior to enlistment he had been working as a civilian for the navy with headquarters in Washington.

After graduating as honor student from Happy High School, Ensign Burgess entered West Texas State College and graduated from there in 1941.

At the time he entered naval work, he was working on his Ph. D. at Texas University and teaching one class in First Year mathematics.

Ensign Burgess is spending a ten day furlough in Canyon with his parents before reporting to Washington, D. C., February 1, for further orders.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

by BOYCE HOUSE

When Mark Twain was a reporter in San Francisco, a friend saw him with a cigar box under his arm and remonstrated, "Mark, you are going to smoke yourself to death." Twain replied, "These aren't cigars; I'm just moving again."

Probably the best of the many stories concerning the famous writer is the one about the time that Twain was visiting a neighbor and became interested in a book, so he asked permission to take it home in order to finish reading it. But the owner said, "You are welcome to read my books here as much as you like but I've lost so many books that I've made it a rule never to loan them out."

Two weeks later, the neighbor came over to borrow Mark's lawnmower. Twain said, "I've made it a rule never to allow my lawnmower to leave my yard but you are welcome to use it here as much as you like."

He got the book.

The Lieutenant Governor all at once has gotten interested in allowing Texas soldiers and sailors to vote and he is clamoring for a special session and is seeking to engage in public controversy with Attorney General Sellers and Governor Stevenson. Of course, the Lieutenant Governor couldn't possibly be thinking of running for Attorney General or Governor himself.

He ought to answer a few questions.

For instance, why didn't he do or say something about the soldier vote question during the regular session of the legislature?

Didn't he know about it or didn't he care?

If action had been taken at the regular session, then there would be no occasion to urge a special session on the subject at a cost of $250,000 to the taxpayers, would there?

For more than two years, Boyce House has insisted that, when a Texas citizen enters the Army or Navy during war, he is still a Texas citizen and is entitled to vote—nor should the State act like Shylock demanding his pound of flesh and insist on $1.75 out of the service men's meager $50 a month. I didn't wait and come out on this after it had become popular.

It's all right for the Lieutenant Governor to come over to the people's side, even at the eleventh hour, but he ought to go to the mourner's bench and ask for forgiveness and bring forth fruits meet for repentance instead of throwing stones at Governor Coke Stevenson — and, oddly enough, claiming to be the Governor's friend while doing so!

Misses Joyce Childress and Evelyn Yearout spent the week end visiting Juanita Gray in White Deer.

Mrs. J. J. Wright and Miss Polly Winstead went to Norman, Okla., to be at the graduation of Pfc. James J. Wright of the N.A.T.T.C.

Milton Morris went to Perryton the first of the week to get his car which has been in a snowbank since Christmas.

Brookfield Still Rates Headlines

Although in the service of their country, members of W. T.'s tall team are still playing basketball, and making headlines.

"The navy certainly did all right by Iowa State when it sent Price Brookfield, West Texas all-American, to the Ames Campus.

The trainee-studded Iowa State team routed the green Nebraska squad Saturday night, 56-24, in the Cornhusker Big Six opener. Grandpa Brookfield blazed the trail, hitting the hoop for 18 points in addition to playing a swell defensive game.

While Brookfield was in the Cyclone lineup the Ames collegians looked like a championship team. Without the West Texas star, the Iowans appeared just an ordinary ball club.

The Iowans led, 45-11, with 12 minutes to play when Coach Louie Menze finally sent Brookfield to the showers."

When Brookfield played for West Texas State (4 years), the team was renowned as the tallest basketball team in the world. Brookie stands 6 feet 3½ inches in height, and is now in the second phase of navy flight training as a member of the Iowa State V-5 unit.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvert Laughery and family from Borger visited his mother, Mrs. Carl Laughery on Sunday.

Lieut. Ted Reid of Pampa Air Field who has been home for fifteen days with a broken foot, returned to duty Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Warren left Tuesday for St. Louis and Chicago where they are buying goods for their store.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Black returned Thursday from St. Louis where they spent 10 days buying goods for Allen & Black.

Mrs. Walter Baker is working in the office of Southwestern Public Service Company during the absence of Mrs. Earl Oldham.

Mrs. W. A. Warren and Mrs. A. M. Warren returned Saturday from Dallas and Fort Worth where they spent last week on business.

Mrs. C. M. Ford of Lubbock was here Thursday on business. She has moved to Amarillo to make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ludlum, Logan Berends and Fawn Rogers spent Sunday in Amarillo with Sgt. and Mrs. R. P. Carriker and Ronnie.

OVERTIME FOR BOSSIE

Speer and Gilmore Designate Term Staff

This is Cactus Cal, announcer of station CHS, broadcasting all the news of the Alma Mater for the past week.

Flash! All students of Canyon are cordially invited to the "President's Ball" social Friday night at the Legion Hall. Money received is to be turned over to the annual infantile paralysis fund.

Stag—15c. Drag—25c.

All high school students welcome.

Congratulations are in order to the surprisingly large number of backers who attended the Eagle-Price basketball game in Amarillo, Thursday, and especially to those battling cagemen who fought so courageously. To you go the student body's sincerest congratulations.

The Junior class wishes to announce the engagement and marriage of two of its members, Freddie Kinkbawmer and Doris Crysnthia Dinklewhopper alias Ernest Frank and Frances Alice Harp. This happy event occurred Friday night at the junior party. Wonder who the discarded lover was, eh, Billie Thurmon.

News has just arrived that John Gill may be sued for manslaughter, or attempt of manslaughter. The victim is Ruth Price, who has a bandaged hand to prove it. Ruth, don't you know knives are sharp?

WHAT ARE YOU DOING?

Word came to the mission station one day that 120 American soldiers were trapped in the jungle, and were constantly being strafed by a Japanese plane flying low overhead. The leader of the school called for sixteen volunteers to attempt to save these men. Every student in the school volunteered to go, knowing that his chance for getting through safely was very slim.

Seeing that a small number could succeed more easily, the leader selected those who were better qualified for the task. These few boys tracked through the brush and dense jungle and brought the soldiers back to safety.

If these students were willing to risk their lives to save the lives of American boys, what is the least we can do here in America to help?

One of the best ways we can render our services here in Canyon High is to back up the Fourth War Loan Drive now in progress. Shall we have the men at the front thinking that we here at home are letting up in our support?

Cardinals Defeat Eagles 30-25

Paced by Pivey, satr Cardinal forward, the Price College Cardinals added a black mark to the outstanding record of the Canyon High School Eagles when they came out on the long end of a 30-25 score. Throughout the game the husky lads from Price kept a reasonably safe margin between the scores. High point man for the Eagle Quintet was center, Leslie Gordon, with ten tallies to his credit, while Pivey passed four field goals through the hoop and three free shots.

During the past three years the Eagles have unsuccessfully tested their skill against that of the Cardinals.

"We hope to offset that record when the two clubs meet in the Canyon gym," said Mr. Sanders.

Eagles Outhustle Friona Cagemen

Fighting to a tight climax, Eagle squadmen out-hustled the Friona Chiefs Tuesday, January 18th to submit a final count of 21-15. At the half the score stood slightly in the Eagles' favor, 8-9. High scorer was Leslie Gordon with six points.

In the second string skirmish Lindsey Taylor with five field goals led the attack against Friona which ended with the Chiefs at the short end of a 14-27 score. Players in this game included: Lindsey, Kenneth Vaughn, Merle Dickerson, J. Ray Hunter, Bob Copeland, Harley Hicks, and Charles Wright.

First stringers were: Bobbie Dowd, Max Bosley, Leslie Gordon, J. Spencer Winn, Don Standley, and Wallace Huff.

Semester Brings New Instructor

Students of Canyon High School will discover a new teacher among them next semester. She is Mrs. Ewell Fowler, teacher of homemaking. Mrs. Fowler received her Bachelor of Science degree at West Texas State College, and her Masters degree at Iowa State University. She has formerly taught in Amarillo Public Schools. She has come to Canyon High recommended highly by Miss Gladys Armstrong, Area Supervisor for Homemakers, who says she is one of the best teachers in Texas.

McClure Offers Assembly Talk

Basketeers Present Eagle Award for Trophy Case

Boone McClure, head of the Panhandle Plains Museum located here, spoke on "Brands and Branding Irons," in assembly last Friday morning in the high school auditorium.

For the first time this year, the assembly was privileged to hear a short devotional by one of the local ministers. Rev. C. C. Armstrong, of the First Methodist Church, emphasized the necessity of studying hard to prepare ourselves for what is coming in the future.

Following the pledge of allegiance, led by Student Council president Billy Jane Bonifield, Mr. Sanders presented the first-place basketball trophy won by the Eagles at the Canyon Invitation Basketball Tournament, to Don Standley, who in turn presented it to Supt. J. B. Speer for the trophy case.

W. G. Sanderson, agriculture teacher presented silver FFA pins denoting the rank of Chapter Farmer to the following boys: James Lair, Ross Bruner, Billy Thurmon, and Bill Jones. Those who were not present for the assembly have received their pins this week.

Winn Displays Great Technicolor Ability

Things ran as usual in the first period plane geometry class except for various giggles and whispers over the room. Yes, everyone present knew about the coming event—everyone except Spence Winn. Oh, had he only known! Yet, unaware of the surprise, Spence listened attentively (?) to the teachings of Mrs. A. K. Knott, and not until the class was almost over did he learn. At ten thirty, the zero hour, without warning, the bomb shell exploded.

"Happy Birthday," led by Mrs. Knott, assisted by Tommy Thompson from the back of the room filled the air. Sitting on the front seat of the room, Spence quickly turned to a tomato red, and then proceeded to cut the first piece of birthday cake.

Following entertainment were various joke circles and "hen parties" with an occasional razzy jazz song floating over the building.

For the information of the wolverines in Canyon High School, Spence is now sixteen years of age. The question is, has he ever been kissed?.

FINERY

At a meeting of an urban district council, the clerk announced that he wanted a supply of ribbons for the typewriter.

"She is a very satisfactory girl," he said, "but I don't see why she should be provided with finery at the expense of the taxpayers."

Rushing up their high school education because of the world situation, Manus Foster, Merle Dickerson, Bobbie Dowd, and Billy Bible have completed their required subjects and made a final bow to their dear old Alma Mater.

Catching our eye because of his writing ability is Manus, who was first term editor of The Eagle's Tale. He won first place last year for the best sports column of the Panhandle High School Press Association and was selected as a member of the Quill and Scroll. Manus enrolled at West Texas State College Tuesday and will major in chemistry.

Dickerson Basketeer

Merle, rather the intellectual type, turns to basketball for his inter-curricular activity. He is a second-string basketeer and has shown ability in mechanical drawing. Maybe that's why he has chosen engineering as his vocation. Merle also entered W. T. last Tuesday.

Excelling in sports, Bobbie Dowd played on the team which won first over Dimmitt in our invitation basketball tournament this year. At the Claude track meet last year, he won third place in polevaulting and participated on the team which took fourth on the mile relay. Bobbie enrolled at W. T. Tuesday and will major in chemistry.

Completing the list is Billy Bible who has for the past year been practically manager of his father's farm. He plans to devote all his time in managing the farm during his father's illness.

Even though Canyon High is going to miss these guys, it wants to be the first to wish them all the best of luck in anything they attempt to do.

EXTEND SALE OF RATION-FREE SHOES

Sales of certain (chiefly novelty) types of women's shoes, ration-free, at three dollars or less a pair, have been extended an extra week—through February 5, OPA has announced.

TO FIGHT GAS BLACK MARKET

A plan whereby gasoline ration coupons are mailed to individual motorists from carefully guarded central issuing stations is now being established by OPA. The plan is expected to eliminate thefts of ration coupons, give OPA a check of issuance, and eliminate a great load from local boards. To further fight black markets, about February 1, OPA will issue a notice urging endorsement of coupons to be inserted in newly issued gasoline ration books.

PORK FROM FARM SLAUGHTERERS

Twelve red stamps in book four, which are numbered "8" and lettered from "A" through "M," may be used for buying pork and other rationed meats from farm slaughtreres. These stamps will not be used by consumers in general until February 27. They will have same expiration dates for purchases from farmers as in city markets. The stamps are worth 10 points each, making a total of 120 points. This does not give the individual who buys from a farm slaughterer a larger meat ration than anyone else. It merely allows him to buy a fairly large amount at one time. In addition, brown stamps in book three may be used ahead of their rgeular validity dates when used in buying from farmers.

SEE WHERE BOND MONEY GOES

Employees of the Department of Agriculture were the first government group to inspect the U. S. S. American Mariner, new Liberty training ship for the U. S. Merchant Marine, and see how their war bond money was being spent. This ship is the largest ever to sail up the Potomac river to Washington. Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture, told the employees he expected them to achieve their fourth war loan goal of $4,779,602 and pointed out that they had over subscribed their war loan quota by almost 25 per cent.

STEEL SPRINGS FOR FURNITURE

In about 60 days, steel springs for upholstered wood furniture will be on the market, according to the War Production Board. Hanufacturers may use a limited quantity of steel springs under a new WPB ruling.

RETURNED WAR DOGS "REPROCESSED"

When the war dog comes home, he will return in his pre-war state of docility with an honorable discharge certificate and service record, the War Department has announced. Dogs are "reprocessed" to assure their welcome return to the community, and are taught to be friendly with all rather than the few to whom they were officially detailed for war duties. Dogs are given a thorough physical examination before being sent home and are returned at government expense.

PRICE DOWN ON SOME PEAS

Retail prices of whole dry peas should be about one and one-half cents a pound less, and of split dry peas about two cents a pound less, under a recent OPA regulation, effective January 26.

EASE RESTRICTIONS ON PLUMBING

Consumers who wish to buy plumbing, cooking, and heating equipment in most cases no longer need authorization from WPB. Some of the items which need no priority rating are—bathtubs, lavatories, toilets, laundry trays, sinks, showers, shower stalls, condensation pumps, chemical toilets, drinking fountains, septic tanks, grease interceptors, flush tanks, scullery sinks, and wash fountains. Unrationed cooking and heating stoves also may be purchased without WPB authorization.

By using your gas water heater (as well as your other gas appliances) wisely you can help in the war effort. Natural gas is a vital fuel needed to keep war plants operating. We, as patriotic Americans, should use as little natural gas as possible in order to save it for these war-time needs.

5 ways to make your gas water heater save gas

1 Repair dripping hot water faucets.
2 Avoid letting hot water run while washing hands, dishes, or shaving.
3 Insulate hot water tanks and pipes to avoid waste.
4 Turn off non-automatic water heater when enough water is heated.
5 Check thermostat setting on automatic water heater. (120 to 140 degrees should be sufficient for normal use.)

A VITAL MESSAGE TO EVERY NATURAL GAS USER:

With the increased use of natural gas by the many war production centers and military camps that have been an outgrowth of the war, there is now a need for everybody to cut down as much as possible on their use of this vital fuel. Because of the shortage of equipment, material, and manpower, the facilities for providing the natural gas cannot be enlarged. For this reason the Office of War Utilities has asked every gas user, whether in the home, office, or plant, to "Use what you must, but save all you can!"
